

B1 Programme

The B1 programme is designed to develop independent language use in Spanish. At this level, students learn to communicate confidently in most everyday situations, including travel, work, and education. The programme also focuses on understanding the main ideas of written and spoken texts and producing clear, well-structured communication on familiar topics.

Grammar Topics

- Review of past tenses
- Sequence of tenses in the indicative mood
- Reported speech
- Introduction to the subjunctive mood
- Present Subjunctive (expressing wishes, doubts, and emotions)
- Present Perfect Subjunctive
- Imperfect Subjunctive
- Noun clauses
- Subject clauses
- Purpose clauses
- Time clauses
- Relative clauses
- Independent clauses
- Simple Conditional

Communication Topics

- Work, education, and career development
- Spanish traditions, celebrations, and culture
- Relationships, emotions, and description of appearance and personality
- Media, technology, health, and environmental issues